Additional Requirements for Authorized Agents

If you are making this request as an authorized agent, please email either (1) a written and signed authorization from the California resident indicating you have authority to submit this request, or (2) a power of attorney from the California resident pursuant to Cal. Prob. Code sections 4000 to 4465.

As required by law, we will contact you to confirm your identity and may ask you to provide additional documentation. Please monitor your inbox for a follow-up email from privacy@ggg.com. We may deny requests from agents that do not submit sufficient proof of their authority to make rights requests.

Furthermore, we may require California residents to verify their own identities or confirm that their agents have permission to submit rights requests on their behalf. Requests may be denied if they cannot be verified or confirmed.
